

YOUR UNITED WAY CONTRIBUTION AT WORK

For the cost of everyday items and activities, you can help people live better lives. Your generosity provides more than you can imagine.

$25

- at Heartland Independent Living Center, a quad cane or two smoke alarms for a handicapped person struggling to remain independent
- at Pregnancy Assistance Center, one week of baby formula
- at Catholic Family Services, school supplies for school-based therapists
- at Four Rivers Family YMCA, swim lessons for a low-income youth

$500

- at one of the area's food pantries, 5,000 pounds of food for hungry families
- at Exceptional Equestrians, six weeks of lessons for a special needs client
- at Grace's Place, three days of 24-hour care for one child
- through the Backpack Program, 80 backpacks filled with food to feed a hungry child for the weekend

$50

- at ALIVE, a parent education class aimed at preventing child abuse and neglect
- at Gateway Education & Therapy, two tutoring sessions or a speech & language session for a special needs child
- through the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, help with a utility bill for a family whose main provider is out of work
- at Legal Services, protection for a senior who was defrauded by a debt collector

$1,000

- at the Summer Reading Program, three performers to come to the library to entertain and educate hundreds of children
- at Washington Senior Center, 10 months of art instruction for seniors
- at Harmony Clubhouse, activities to integrate adults with mental illness into their communities to enable them to live full, productive lives
- through American Red Cross, 50 clean-up kits with items such as mops, brooms, bleach and pails for families after a disaster

$100

- at Turning Point, a one-night stay plus two meals at an abuse shelter for a woman fleeing domestic violence
- At VOYCE, three hours of advocacy for residents in long-term care communities who need help resolving grievances
- at Meals-on-Wheels, 50 nutritious meals delivered to homebound seniors
- at Lutheran Family & Children's Services, a crib or a car seat for a low-income family

Improving Lives for Lasting Change
takes all of us working together!

Your contribution to Franklin County Area United Way is a donation to 54 area agencies and programs. Nearly 80,000 lives were improved in 2014.